MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: Deputy Director (Plans), Office of

25X1 SUBJECT: [redacted]

25X1 1. [redacted] should not bother you further. Mr. Angleton had a talk with him and it appeared that [redacted] had told various 25X1 people in New York about what he was up to and, furthermore, he was very anxious that CIA use its influence to get him better living 25X1 quarters in [redacted] During the conversation Mr. Angleton apparently 25X1 came to the conclusion that [redacted] was not going to be an immediately useful man and, therefore, had called the whole deal off.

25X1 2. I asked how [redacted] reacted and Mr. Angleton said [redacted] 25X1 expressed the hope that his warm friendship with Mr. Angleton would not be prejudiced. It was apparently left that if, at any future time, CIA thought it might be able to use [redacted] it would communicate 25X1 with him and this seemed to be quite satisfactory to [redacted] 25X1
